

"Messed Up"—TCBC Midtown
Bible Reading & Reflection Plan

The focus of the "Messed Up" series is how Jesus graciously meets us in our messiness. In the Gospels we see Jesus frequently interacting with "messed up" people. This personal reading plan takes you through one of these Gospels (Luke) so that you can reflect on the gracious and powerful work of Christ. On Sundays, you'll look at the sermon passage.

Below are some suggested guidelines for reflecting on the Scriptures. It is very helpful to write down your responses in a journal or notebook.

Begin with prayer, asking God to open your heart to what he is speaking to you.

Read the passage (twice is especially helpful) and use these questions for reflection, writing down your thoughts:

1. What does this passage teach me about God the Father, Jesus, and/or the Spirit? What does this mean for my life?
2. What does this passage teach me about what it means to follow the Lord (in how I think, speak, and live)?
3. What is one way God is leading me to apply this passage to my life?
