

Marriage:
“Building Trust”
Ephesians 4:25-32

Cooperation
is saying,
“Sure, I’ll drop what I’m doing and help you hang that picture right now.”

Trust
is saying,
“I’ll hold the nail, Dean.
You swing the hammer.”

“Trust is being so convinced that you can rely on the integrity, strength, character and faithfulness of another that you are willing to place yourself in his or her care.” – Paul Tripp

Commitment: “We will work together to build a sturdy bond of trust”

Eph. 4:25-32 (NIV)

- I. Our security in Christ enables us to trust one another
 - A. Secure in trusting Christ for our identity
 - B. Secure in trusting Christ with our interdependence

- II. Habitually build trust in our marriage (relationships)
 - A. Communication
 - B. Dealing with anger
 - C. Integrity

Commitment: “We will work together to build a sturdy bond of trust”